Rezension hilfreich. Witty, ironic, hilarious. Leacock is a 90's Will RogersVon djlotter@aol.comLeacock's observations about people and community are devastatingly accurate and wonderfully recognizable. The narrator captures the posturings and cozy delusions of small town life with the deadpan wit and irony of a Will Rogers for the nineties. The emperor stands there completely undressed and yet just as we turn to gloat with our fellow bystanders we feel the draft that alerts us to our own nakedness. Stephen Leacock, where have you been all my life?
