KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Puff meets FangVon ToureaStarr ist eine Drachenwandlerin und mglicherweise die Letzte ihrer Art. Da Drachenblut sehr wertvoll fr Magier und Hexen ist, wurde sie und ihr Bruder gejagt, hauptschlich von gnadenlosen Vampiren. Starr konnte entkommen, ihr Bruder nicht. Seit zehn Jahren ist sie nun allein auf der Flucht. Eine Geheimorganisation, die direkt dem US Prsidenten unterstellt ist, wird auf sie aufmerksam und tut alles, um sie zu schtzen. Chef der Organisation ist Ronan, ein 400 Jahre alter Vampir. Und zwar ein recht eingefahrener, schnell gekrnkter, ja schon fast weinerlicher Vampir. Nachdem er Starr zum ersten Mal in die Augen schaut, ndert sich das allerdings schnell. Ronan blht auf! Er erkennt seine Seelengefhrtin. Ein Drache - kann das gutgehen? Und Starr hat schreckliche Angst vor Blutsaugern.Das Team besteht aus Vampiren, Wolfswandlern und Hexen die am Anfang mit Ecken und Kanten ausgestattet werden.Unter den Mitarbeitern gibt es unterhaltsame Kabbeleien. Im Laufe der Geschichte flachen diese Eigenarten leider etwas ab. Jedoch wirken alle recht sympathisch.Schwerpunkt der Story ist die Liebesgeschichte des ungleichen Paares. Hier geht es sehr romantisch und erotisch zu. Es gibt aber auch genug Abwechslung in Form von Jagd auf Drachenjger und Einsatz von Magie. Und schlielich ist der Verbleib von Starrs Bruder noch nicht geklrt...Anfangs empfand ich den Schreibstil als etwas ruckelig, doch das gab sich bald und es lief flssig und rund, jedoch ohne viel Tiefgang. Mir scheint, die Autorin ist eine Fliebandschreiberin. Dagegen spricht nichts, doch so fehlte es mir ein wenig an Individualitt und Originalitt.Das Englisch liest sich frisch und leicht und wer mal mit einem Drachen fliegen mchte, knnte Spa daran haben. Es gibt allerdings einen milden Cliffhanger fr den nchsten Band. Ich vergebe 3,5 Sterne fr unterhaltsame aber nicht auergewhnliche Lesestunden.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Fang Puff Forever!Von Anna SalamatinThis is Ronan and Starr's story. He is Vampire and she is a Dragon. She is very special and precious because she is the last Dragon since her brother Tallon sacrificed himself to save her and so must be protected from hunters who want her blood for the magical properties.Ronan was astonished to learn from his Sire Josef that not only were dragons real but he is now tasked with finding this Dragon and keeping her safe.....I totally enjoyed this captivating story. Things that happened 4 centuries ago come together through time to insure that these mates, Ronan Starr find each other. And their mating is nothing short of erotic. This story has it all, mystery, battles with dark forces and romance, hot hot romance. There is a cliffhanger of sorts, but I'm not big on spoilers so your just going to have to read it and make your own guess. I know what mine is and am looking forward to the next installment to see if I'm right!
