romance Von Doortalks Surrender is a good shorter romance about a girl who looks for herself, boy who gets hit by love and Brad the Bad. I give it four stars because it did served exactly my needs - to forget my daily stress over an easy read, where love will be the main plot and I would have not to think at all. The plot is fine, similar to many other books - two meet, one does not check that it is the true love, they separate only to find their happy end again. Exactly what I was looking for! Exactly what I needed :-)! I would give it three stars though if my need of distraction would be smaller, because the main heroine character development felt shallow and too quick in times. I do still recommend it if you need a short, light read!
