verschiedenen Schattierungen zu zeichnen und nicht eindeutig schwarz oder wei. Ein gelungenes Buch.

Kurzbeschreibung Surrounded by bullets and blood, gangsters and empty promises, singer Adrian Marcone navigates Chicago's seedy underworld by keeping men at bay and her heart on ice. But trouble is brewing and the city is on the brink of war, calling a new soldier into the ranks. One who is dark, deadly, and so much more. So many things Adrian can't deny. Now the city is heating up, Adrian is thawing, and she'll learn that fate will not be denied. That some melodies, once heard, can never be forgotten. *Due to language and sexual content, this book is not recommended for readers under 18.
