Heiterer KrimiVon Susanne WeigandDas ist die Geschichte einer Frau in Kleinstadt-USA, vom Mann verlassen und dann sind da auf einmal diese Affen im Hinterhof und der Kopf einer Leiche im leerstehenden Nachbarhaus.Das ist schwungvoll und komisch erzählt. Weil die Heldin eine Kinoliebhaberin ist, gibt es stndig witzige Anspielungen auf Filme und Schauspieler. Action auch - und eine unerwartete Wendung. (Vielleicht nicht ganz unerwartet, der Leser ahnt irgendwann die Wahrheit.)Gute, spannende und humorvolle Unterhaltung, bei der man auf die Plausibilitit keinen zu grossen Wert legen sollte.Gute Aufbereitung des E-Books.1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Cute and fun readVon mountainmamaBarbara Marr would have to qualify as the most inept sleuth in the world, but thats half the charm. As she noses into the goings-on at the house next door, she finds herself involved in stuff that any sane person would avoid. Nice and light over the top and not to be taken seriously.A fun silly romp that is very well edited. A perfect way to spend an afternoon.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Take the monkeys and runVon krimifreundsehr witzig und gleichzeitig spannend, lsst sich gut lesen und hat immer wieder berraschende Wendungen, so dass man gerne dranbleibt

KurzbeschreibungThis fun if light novels quippy, hilarious narrator, Barbara Marr, has so much warmth and genuine gumption, youd certainly want her on your criminal investigative team. Typical, that is until she sets out to find the missing link between a bizarre monkey sighting in her yard and the bone chilling middle-of-the-night fright fest at the strangely vacant house next door. When Barb talks her two friends into some seemingly innocent Charlies Angels-like sleuthing, they stumble upon way more than they bargained for and uncover a piece of neighborhood history that certain people would kill to keep on the cutting room floor.237 pages of laugh-out-loud fun. s:The story is fast-paced, fun and with quite a few twists all rolled into one cute adventure. More recently, her short story The Recollections of Rosabelle Raines, was published in the mystery anthology Chesapeake Crimes: They Had it Comin (Wildside Press, 2010). A few years ago she became inspired to write her first novel, Take the Monkeys and Run, a comedy-mystery, inspired, to some degree by a true monkey sighting in her own neighborhood. Because she loves to laugh as well as make other people laugh, she has the most fun imagineable writing the character Barbara Marr as well as her friends and adversaries. These days, Karen can be found pecking away at her laptop, conjuring a collection of Barbara Marr short stories and a second Barbara Marr novel, Citizen Insane. Otherwise, she's spending time hanging with her kids before they hit those years where they pretend they don't know her.
