Paranormal Group on Goodreads.comBack to the Academy with the next generation. This book is about the daughter of Briar and Uthiel and the son of Aden and Lizbeth. I really like the idea that now get their own story. But I didn't like it as much as the second or third book of the series. In my opinion there was just too much family connections and too many kids. I completely lost track of who belongs to whom. And who's sister/parents/brother... Also the mind changing of one of the minor characters irritated me a lot. One second she was the mean ex-fiance and in the next second it was without doubt she was going to help the woman who was the reason of the break up. That is just too deliberate. Still, I enjoyed reading it and when you can step over all the confusing family connections, it's a good fantasy book.

Kurzbeschreibung Kitrina Dragonheart is a hunted woman, but the last thing the savvy rogue wants is to partner in a quest with the arrogant but oh-so-sexy prince who deflowered her. But when the threat extends to her legacy and her loved ones, she has no choice but to accept his skills as an extraordinary warrior. Now if she can just get past the distraction of his touch. Barbarian Zander Hammerstrike vowed to protect Kit with his life. But who's going to protect Zander from the sensually sassy human? She's playing havoc on his sanity as well as his libido and she's on the verge of stealing his heart... again. He can't let that happen. As future ruler of Alaria, Zander must take a barbarian wife to keep the bloodline pure, and Kit being human... Destined from birth to follow different paths, their love seems impossible, but does the Dragon Heart Opal have other plans in store for the pair?
