Good - little surprise endingVon Ein KundeI did like this book and I went through it fairly fast. There were parts of the book that were not explained very well. Such as how Ross Sutherland was induced to help the evil Fergusson. The ending is a bit surprising and a little unexplained. By that I mean the author doesn't explain the sudden change in emotions of the character. Overall, the book was good and recommended

KurzbeschreibungTAMING The LION Sutherland Honor Lay In His Hands Ross Sutherland had one last hope to save his estates, and it meant stealing from Lady Catlyn Boyd. Yet he had no choice, for their common enemy was blackmailing him. But when Ross began to desire the winsome maiden, he knew, no matter what the cost, he would never betray her. Catlyn had once paid a high price for trusting a man. Still, the barely leashed power in Ross's sizzling blue eyes played havoc with her senses, and she longed to be the untamed rogue's lady until she learned that the man whom she trusted for protection was no more than a pawn for her deadliest enemy!
