Congratulations on this great debut!

Kurzbeschreibung30-year old teacher Tori Munro has put up with her principals bullying for so long, she is surprised when Tom, a visiting adviser to her school, turns into an ally she doesnt really want.Despite her efforts to keep him at an arms length, he manages to gain her trust and a tender relationship starts to form. A future with Tom looks certain until Tori walks away after a simple misunderstanding. When she recognises her mistake, it is too late to win him back.After weeks of misery, Tori takes to the hills of Central Otago to clear her head. High up in the tussock country she loves so much, she realises that it is time to move on.The decision comes as a relief, but a sudden weather change gives Tori little time to dwell on it.Will Tori ever make it home safely to put it into action? And will Tom ever find out what happened to her?Set in the beautiful South Island of New Zealand, this is a moving novel about love, loss and survival that you wont be able to put down.
