Awesome sequelVon SiniFis***I received this book in exchange for an honest review from the Author and the Lovers of Paranormal Group on Goodreads.com***I loved this sequel of "The Academy Series". What an amazing book! Lark and Sarco are such a great couple and I really felt for them. It was great to see, how they just can't live without each other, but accept their destiny and their duties. I still have this "awww"-feeling, because of Sarco going out and trying to do everything that gives him a chance to spend the rest of his life with Lark.

KurzbeschreibungLarksong Hammerstrike has always been just the younger sister of Princess Aryanna. Never quite as pretty or as smart, always lacking, a mere empath whose power gets her into trouble more often than not. But at Carnalval, the festival of all things sexual, she unleashes her sensual side for a night in the arms of a masked stranger. When morning dawns, Lark can't resist a peek beneath the mask of her lover and is once again crushed by fate. The man of her lusty adventure is none other than the future Lord of the High Elves and destined to marry her sister. As heir to the kingdom of Landis and current instructor of wizardry at the Academy of Magical Arts, Sarco Sunwalker is honor bound to rise above the temptation of the beautiful empathic student who invades his mind, body, and soul. But when sparks fly, lightning strikes, and thunder rolls, Sarco finds himself more than tempted by the storm of Lark's passion and vows to find a solution that will prevent a war between races, fulfill an infamous quest, and win Lark's hand. Book 2
