Von Valerie Bongards This is the first of a trilogy by an author I have not read before. I enjoyed the book very much. A beautiful love story, adventure, betrayal, excitement. Jen Holling has woven a wonderful story. To stop a fierce border war, Robert Maxwell is going to marry Caroline Graham. Two families that have feuded for generations. An uneasy peace takes hold, as passion grows between the newly-weds. There are other things happening also, Caroline's brother is holding Robert's brother captive. Many characters in the story harbour hate against each other because of the feuding. And then there is the Bloodstone, a ruby that is apparently from Excalibur, but is there really such a thing? I'm starting the next one right away, as the story continues with Caroline's sister, Fayth. If the others are as good as this one, this should be a very good trilogy which will be finding a permanent place on my bookshelves.
