Von L.A. Witt : Test Drive (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Test Drive (English Edition):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Nice and quickVon SunneHm....I love L.A. Witt and that little piece is well written and all...but it somehow lacked something for me. It's nice and quick to read but it's nothing that will stay with you.3,5 stars.

Kurzbeschreibung Sean Waters is down on his luck thanks to the economy, and winds up working for his domineering father's car dealership. It's not the greatest job, but it's a paycheck. The only problem? He's got a wicked crush on the general manager, Jackson Rayburn. When Jackson suggests a drive in one of the brand new sports cars, Sean has no idea it's not the car Jackson really wants to take for a spin. They both need this job, though, and the boss isn't keen on employees getting involved with each other. But it's just a lusty little crush anyway, so they can move on and pretend nothing ever happened. Can't they? This short story was previously published, and has been revised and expanded to 15,000 words.
