Fabian R.Really. You have to read it. To breath it. What do you will learn? To love. Noting less. I read it now the second time. Only a view books I re-read. This is one of them. It reminds me on the beauty around. I reminds me who I want to be. As a lover. Not only a lover of women. A lover of life.Zan writing style is full of metaphors. Beautiful pictures who manifests in your head and heart. He has a great word pool. It just makes fun to read and it will catch you.You have to give this book a try. It will change your life. Seriously.1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Just thank you, Zan!Von ClemensThis is an eye-opener and true inspiration. Nothing less. Reading it has made a real difference in my life and how I perceive my woman and women in general. And myself in relation to them. If I was to write a list of my top 10 alltime favorite books, the Alabaster girl would be on it (and I've read tons of good books). Owning both the kindle version and the paperback with Zan's signature so I always have it with me. Thank you, Zan!
