KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. It's not all what it appears to be - very entertainingVon HappyFaceWhen Caroline moves to her new house and puts her little son Ben into school she finds out that it's all about being with the right people, playing with the right kids, mingling with the right crowd. Her old friends Heather and Eva do not believe in the other mother's must do's and so they get themselves into quite funny situations until they find out that even the most pompous and proper mother doesn't play by the rules she sets. - I really enjoyed reading this book!

Kurzbeschreibung Meet Caroline Gray: divorcee and newly-single mother. Firmly closing the door on her acrimonious divorce, Caroline and son Ben have moved to trendy Frencham where they join Caroline's long-time best friends, Heather and Eva. Settling into their new life is easy, but nothing has prepared Caroline for the demands of motherhood at The Sycamore, the school the trio's beloved offspring attend. Forget classroom bullies, forget trips to the head's office, this is full-scale adult playground politics. This is battle with the mothers who won't take no for an answer -- the Playground Mafia. Amidst the four-wheel drives, Ben's complicated afterschool play-date schedule and her friends' perilous extra-marital affairs, Caroline tries to keep a low and very single profile. But it's not long before she too finds herself under the mafia's scandal-radar, and her life takes an unexpected turn ... Pressestimmen "Scandal, backstabbing, illicit affairs... a fab, girlie read!" (New Woman) "Mums will be able to see the truth behind this fun novel" (In The Know) "A real laugh-out-loud tale" (OK! Magazine) "An entertaining insight into school politics. You'll laugh and cringe at how cliquey and competitive mums can be." (Babyexpert.com) Werbetext A fantastic commercial concept, this is one of Arrow's most exciting women's fiction launches in 2006
