Von Chris Kuzneski : The Prophecy (payne and jones Series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Prophecy (payne and jones Series):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen3 von 3 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. a great adventure - fast paced and entertainingVon AmelrodeThis is another great thriller by Kuzneski. He gets better with each book. "The Prophecy" follows the expected pattern: a secret, short chapters, different guys following the same story from different angles. Those having read his three previous novels one meets again Payne and Jones, Nick Dial and Petr Ulster. The book is written with a great flow and indeed makes a gripping yarn, easy to read and not at all boring. The style is however not as flat as it used to be. Kuzneski managed to give its eading personalities a more depth, even tough that is very so slighty. But he can not really get around to describe persons in terms of stereotyps. His writing is always a bit like a film script and one can see the space for the commercial breaks. In his first book Kuznewski asked the question: Why did Americans have to make a joke out of everything? - yes, why indeed and why Kuznewski too. The book is plastered with this kind of lines, but at least he gives a reason for it. Maybe I am just to European for it. All in all, it is a book which clearly entertains the reader, it is fast running thriller and is indeed very entertaining.
