KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Nur für Leser, die Abby und Jesse bereits aus der 44 Reihe von Jools Sinclair kennen. Von S. CorrellEs handelt sich um eine Kurzgeschichte, in der der Leser erfährt, wie die Beziehung zwischen Abby und Jesse zueinander ist, bevor 44 Book One beginnt. Eine Beziehung, in der beide nur vage ahnen, dass sie vielleicht doch mehr ist, als nur "gute Freunde". Allerdings endet dieses Buch auch einige Zeit vor den dramatischen Ereignissen, die ab dem ersten Band der 44 Reihe geschildert werden, so dass "The road not taken" eine Geschichte ist, die für sich alleine nur einen Anfang, aber kein wirkliches Ende hat. Es empfiehlt sich, mindestens den ersten Band der Reihe zu lesen, bevor man sich mit dieser Kurzgeschichte an den Anfang des Gesamtwerks begibt.

KurzbeschreibungWho says you can never go home again? Go back to high school with Abby and Jesse, back to a simpler time, back to where it all began before that fateful day on that icy mountain road that would change them both forever. Its almost Thanksgiving and the biggest game of Abby Craigs life is just days away. But before she can focus on scoring goals, she has to help Jesse solve a mystery thats been haunting the schools basketball team for the last fifty years. Meanwhile, her boyfriend Conner is proving to be a whole different kind of distraction. Will Abby be able to juggle it all or will her junior year end up being a real turkey? This heartwarming short story is a prequel to FORTY-FOUR, which has been downloaded by more than half a million readers. THE ROAD NOT TAKEN is approximately 10,000 words long.KurzbeschreibungWho says you can never go home again?
