interesting. at the end of this book there are a few pages out of the next book by Katie Fforde, so you will be able to make your mind up, if you also want to read paradise fields or not. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. My least favorite Katie Fforde Von Squeaky I am a pretty big fan of Katie Fforde books, but this one was a bit of a disappointment. The women were interesting and the premise cute, but the romances were completely impossible to understand. The various partners spent nearly no time getting to know one and other or speaking with each other. What drew the couples to each other was really not clear to me. Just not up to standard. In spite of this I will surely keep reading her books as long as Katie Fforde keeps writin them! 1 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. totally unrealistic, but nice to read Von lazy Typical Katie Fforde novel. The stories of the 3 girls are not realistic at all, but it is an easy, relaxed read. And you know from the start what's going to happen, no surprises there.

Kurzbeschreibung Love is in the air. A wonderfully romantic novel from the No. 1 Sunday Times bestselling author of Recipe for Love, A French Affair and The Perfect Match. If May, Sally and Harriet didn't need the money so badly, they definitely wouldn't be working for Slimeball Slater at Quality Cleaners. So when they discover it's Slimeball taking them to the cleaners, they decide to set up their own business - and that's when things really start to take off. Working for themselves gives them the freedom and independence they've been longing for. May can afford the mooring fees for her beloved narrowboat; Harriet discovers a true gift for painting and Sally's dream of a place of her own is fast becoming reality. But is it too much, having made such a success of their working lives, to expect similar success in their romantic ones? Pressestimmen "Joanna Trollope crossed with Tom Sharpe" (Mail on Sunday) "The romance fizzles along with good humour and is a good, fat, summery read" (Sunday Mirror) "Old-fashioned romance of the best sort funny, comforting" (Sunday Times) "Can be scoffed at one sitting tasty!" (Cosmopolitan) "Warm, witty and entertaining ... as satisfying as a cup of hot cocoa on a chilly night" (Woman Home) Werbetext Love is in the air.
