mein Buch Von Mariam Kobras Danke, , fr die Aufforderung per email, mein eigenes Buch zu bewerten. Klar, dass ich Rosewood Guitar 5 Sterne gebe!

Kurzbeschreibung Can you fall in love with someone based on some lyrics on a page? Is there such a thing as one true love, and does serendipity listen and lend a helping hand? Jon Stone's journey to fame and fortune seemed like a ride on a comet's fiery tail, but is this Brooklyn boy ready for the darker side of success? Leaving home and family behind, a young Jon Stone moves to California to find fame as a singer-songwriter. Music is in his blood the songs seem to write themselves but he soon discovers that sex, drugs, and rock 'n' roll aren't the only dangers in Hollywood. Best-selling author Mariam Kobras never disappoints, and this prequel to her IPPY Award-winning Stone Trilogy is true to form. The story of Jon Stone before he meets his soul mate, Naomi, The Rosewood Guitar is rich with lyrical passages and lush descriptions that will have you walking on the beach in Santa Monica alongside Jon as he wrestles with the problems he's facing. Advance Praise "Music and Romance what more do you need? A gorgeous book and a brilliant read." ~ Jaqui Somers "As one of the prequels to the Stone Trilogy, this book chronicles Jon's humble beginnings as a musician and his journey to fame. He eventually discovers that his path leads him right to the true heart and soul of his music and his life. This book is nearly impossible to put down once started!" ~ Mandy France Hall "This companion book to Kobras' Stone Trilogy offers a look at what life was like for Jon Stone before he became a rock 'n' roll superstar. It is a lovely tale of a young man's dreams, and his journey to success." ~ Delores
